FROM YALSA’s (Young Adult Library Services Association) website:
The Teens’ Top Ten is a “teen choice” list, where teens nominate and choose their favorite books of the previous year!

Readers ages twelve to eighteen will vote online between
Aug. 15 and Teen Read Week (Oct. 8-14, 2017)

INK TO IMAGE

13 Reasons Why by Jay Asher
High school student Clay Jensen receives a box in the mail containing several cassette tapes recorded by his classmate Hannah, who committed suicide. He spends a bewildering and heartbreaking night crisscrossing their town, listening to Hannah's voice recounting the events leading up to her death.

Hidden Figures (Young Readers Edition) by Margot Lee Shetterly
Before John Glenn orbited the earth, or Neil Armstrong walked on the moon, a group of dedicated female mathematicians known as “human computers” used pencils, slide rules, and adding machines to calculate the numbers that would launch rockets, and astronauts, into space.

The film adaptation of Hidden Figures was released on DVD in April 2017.

Everything, Everything by Nicola Yoon
The story of a teenage girl who's literally allergic to the outside world. When a new family moves in next door, she begins a complicated romance that challenges everything she's ever known. The narrative unfolds via vignettes, diary entries, texts, charts, lists, illustrations, and more.

The film adaptation of Everything, Everything hit theaters in May 2017.

Before I Fall by Lauren Oliver
After she dies in a car crash, teenage Samantha relives the day of her death over and over again until, on the seventh day, she finally discovers a way to save herself.

The film adaptation of Before I Fall was released on DVD in May 2017.
