NATIONAL BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH

National Bullying Prevention Center's website (<http://www.pacer.org/bullying>):

Founded in 2006, October is National Bullying Prevention Month and that means it's time to let everyone know why you care about bullying prevention.

Get your school, family, clubs, and teams involved, and remember: The End of Bullying Begins with Me!

Unity Day — Wednesday, October 21

- Go Orange! Unite against bullying by wearing orange and showing your support.
- Help make orange go viral—Share why you are “going orange” on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram using #UnityDay2015

Join the We Will Generation!

Want to be a part of the movement of students looking out for students? Learn what you can do and how to take the pledge. WE WILL be the generation to:

- Own this issue and be the solution
 - Make sure every individual knows that they matter
 - Reach out to peers and let them know that they aren't alone
 - Establish a supportive community that unites in action
 - Change the negativity that has impacted so many for so long

DON'T WRITER'S CRAMP MY STYLE

The Atascadero Library invites its local teens (ages 13-18) to enter a writing contest this fall. Both essay and short story categories are available, with prizes for both categories.

Guidelines: Means of communication such as radio, television, newspapers, magazines, internet and social networks are forms of media that reach or influence people widely.

To get all the details and pick up a contest entry form, visit the Atascadero Library

Deadline is November 2, 2015
